Course days will commence at 9-30am and end at approximately 5pm, depending on how the class has progressed during the day. The nature of our teaching is flexible and organic and if we are in the middle of an important discussion or practical on the stroke of 5pm we may ask students to stay an extra ten minutes or so to bring the process to a natural conclusion. Equally, if a natural finish point suggests itself ten or fifteen minutes before the scheduled finish time we may poll the group to see if they agree to wind up the day at that point.

There will be a lunch break scheduled each day and tea breaks mid-morning and mid-afternoon.
